International Family Justice Center Conference

The Family Justice Center Alliance is proud to invite fellow law enforcement personnel, prosecutors, victim advocates, judges, parole and probation officers, rape crisis workers, medical personnel, counselors, faith community members, educators and others to this 3-day conference highlighting promising practices and emerging issues in domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking. This year, there will be specific tracks for law enforcement, attorneys, advocates, clinicians, and family justice center professionals. The Family Justice Center Tracks will focus on planning, implementation and sustainability for developing, new, and existing Centers. A tour of the San Diego Family Justice Center will be offered. There will also be opportunities to network with speakers and other attendees at the on-site resource center, the Family Justice Center Marketplace, and much more!
